NEWS IN THE VICINAGE.

The board of equalization raised the assessment of Mercer 12 per cent. Without assigning cause, William Baker, of Monticello, cut his throat and died.

George Jones, a Boyle county Negro, broke 620 pounds of hemp from sun to sun, says the Advocate.

A white chicken thief named Gill, was shot by Arch Whittaker in Madison, and fatally wounded while in the net.

In the game of ball between Centre College and Kentucky University at the State College grounds, Centre College won by a score of 15 to 3.

The three-year-old child of Dr. Slemons, of Jellico, was frightfully scalded by the servant accidentally spilling a kettle of hot water on it.

Hugh Moore, of Boyle, aged 17, and Miss Ethel Robinson, of Harriman, Tenn., 16, both pupils at Prof. Seomp's school at Harriman, were married last week.

The fiscal court of Pulaski has decided to build a bridge over Fishing creek on the Columbia road and another over Buck creek, near Dallas. The two will cost $7,750.

Wm. Owens, charged with attempting an assault on Laura Collier, also colored, at Richmond, fled to Somerset and was arrested by Jumbo Hughes. He waived an examining trial and was held in $300.

A petition is being circulated in South Somerset asking the town authorities to appoint A. T. Martin a regular policeman for that beat. He has been working as an extra-Reporter.

The Lancaster Record says that one of its subscribers ordered his paper stopped because he didn't want his family to read horse and jack advertisements, which that paper persisted in printing.

A special from Middlesboro says: "On Rough and Ready Creek, Perry county, George Whiterker and William Jackson quarreled over a line fence, both drew revolvers, fired simultaneously and in less time than it required to tell the story, both were dead."

N. M. Shumate advertises in the Mt. Vernon Signal that "I will not be responsible, nor assume payment for any debt or debts contracted by my wife, Anna Shumate, nor will I be responsible for any of her actions or accounts or costs on same."

The Jessamine county fiscal court has purchased the 15 miles of the Lexington and Danville turnpike for $6,500, the amount it was appraised for. The 35 soldiers who have been guarding the toll gates for 33 days at a cost of $4,000 have been removed.

A dispatch from Pineville says that a prominent physician of that place was arrested for boiling a human skeleton in a kettle on the street. A Negro assistant was also "run in." It is claimed that the skeleton was obtained from a Louisville medical college.

Cashier R. M. Jackson, seeing everybody "dressed up" last Friday going to Mrs. M. E. Brown's Easter Millinery Opening, decided that it was Saturday and placed the time-lock on the bank safe for Sunday. As a result the money was locked up Saturday and Mr. Jackson had to accept it as an immense joke at his expense.—London Kentuckian.

MAKE ALL PAY OR NONE.

MR. EDITOR.—Some time last fall a gentleman came up to me on the street and stated that the trustees of the Stanford white school had levied an extra assessment of $1 per head on every white citizen of this district, and that he had been appointed to collect. The dollar, I paid, as I had done one year previous. Since paying said dollar I have heard a number of men say they refused to pay that assessment, and although it has been nearly six months from the time I paid my dollar, no steps have been taken to force the delinquent ones to pay. Every one of the men of whom I speak (and I judge there are many others) have children and I have none, yet the board of trustees permits them to go scott free of this tax and leaves me and other willing souls with the bag to hold. Now I do not object to paying a dollar school tax or five dollars either, but I do not want to pay it unless everybody else does. I do not think anybody will say in this I am wrong. The above circumstances have occurred two years in succession and I think it is time to call a halt. As no effort has been made to force delinquents to pay, one is compelled to conclude that the money raised from those who pay willingly is sufficient for the purpose for which it was levied. If this is true, the trustees are making willing ones pay the obligations of others, and it is not true the school must be doing without whatever the levy was made to purchase. The trustees have, therefore, treated the school or the public-spirited citizens badly, and either is wrong. The writer is not an enemy to the trustees, but a friend, and merely calls attention to this in order that another of the many wrongs may be righted.

LANCASTER.

James Wright, of Stanford, was here Saturday trying to buy a home.

Several of our citizens are talking more of base ball than war, having lost interest in the latter.

The farmers are busy after the continuous rain, but few people come to town and there is a dearth of news.

E. W. Harris has completed the school census for this district and reports 276 in the school age, against 282 last year.

J. Mort Rothwell has several men at work repairing the buildings at Dripping Springs, and that famous resort will be in good condition when the season opens.

Mrs. Gov. W. O. Bradley is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. H. Gill. Mr. J. R. Harris will go to Arkansas in a few days to locate permanently in the mercantile business.

Messrs. Hugh and William Smith, the former of Somerset and the latter of Covington, are here with their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, who is suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

H. Clay Sutton has made a life-like sketch of Judge Oscar Tillett and Jim "Crow" Dillon discussing the Cuban question. It is so true to the parties named that each threatens to institute suit against Mr. Sutton for associating him with the other.

Capt. Ed Bishop, of the K. P. Uniform Rank, No. 24, has received a letter from Marmaduke Bowden, colonel commanding, to know how many men he can furnish for Cuban service. The captain answered that he would view the ground and furnish all he could.

It appears that our nation will adopt a dark brown uniform for the army, which does not show at a distance as blue does, and does not furnish such a distinct target on the battle field. This was suggested several years ago by Squire R. Boyle, of this city.

Our enterprising townsman, John M. Farra, is raising funds to put an electric light on the cupola of the courthouse, which will light the way to the depot for the traveling public, when night trains are put on. He tells us that arrangements are being made to erect a handsome opera house, and that it will be built within a year. Verily, verily, Lancaster is on a boom.

The Lexington Leader, in speaking of John B. Thompson's candidacy for Congress, is out of balance when it says that Messrs. Thompson and Chinn have control of the Eighth district machinery, or that many politicians say that they have such control. The democracy of this district is not liable to be moved about automatically by a mechanical device, prepared by them or anybody else. They are able campaigners, but the votes must be cast without a system of wires, which will be snapped wherever they appear.

Adjutant General Collier is here and says that he ready to march with his militia as soon as a call is made on the States. He approves the action of Congress and says that Cuba should be free and the destruction of the Maine should be avenged. Although everything looks like war, I will still wager 10 acres of sheep that there will be no war. If Congress agrees on intervention and recognition and McKinley proceeds to execute the resolution, the powers will quiet Spain, or she will withdraw from the island.

CHURCH CHATTER.

Rev. I. S. McElroy has declined a call to Memphis. He is now pastor of a Presbyterian church at Lexington.

During Rev. J. F. Williams' three years' pastorate of the Harrodsburg Baptist church 91 have been added to the membership, making the total 320.

Rev. S. S. Deering, the venerable Methodist divine, was 83 years old on the 10th, and is remarkably active for his age. He is probably the oldest Methodist preacher now living in Central Kentucky.

The Cleveland Presbytery decided that ex-President Cleveland is not entitled to attend the meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly at Winona, Ind., next month, because he favored the sale of liquor at Princeton Inn.

The Jefferson Davis memorial window was unveiled Sunday in St. Paul's Cathedral, Richmond, Va., the church Mr. Davis attended while president of the Confederacy. There was an immense crowd present. The services were very simple, the sermon being preached by Rev. Dr. William Dame, of Baltimore. Mrs. Davis, her granddaughter, Miss Hays, and Consul General Lee and family, accompanied by Miss Cisneros, attended the ceremonies.

Rev. George H. Turner, who has been pastor of the Walnut Flat and other churches for a year or more, preached his last sermon at the former Sunday, prior to leaving for Sullivan, Ill., where he has been called to a flourishing church in that flourishing town. Mr. Turner is a splendid young preacher and while his congregations regret sincerely to give him up, they are glad that his lines will fall in pleasant places and hope for him and his excellent wife a long life of usefulness.

MT. VERNON.

Services at the Christian church were conducted by Rev. Runyan, of High Bridge.

Mrs. Weiderhold and sister, Miss Koifrat, of Skaggs creek, were guests of Miss Bessie Miller last week.

The new residence which Mr. Sim Davis is building on Spring street, will be quite an addition to that part of town.

If some of our citizens had the public welfare more at heart and worked less assiduously for self interest, the county would soon be of the pauper list.

Mr. R. B. Bethune, a prominent lawyer of this place, and Miss Ray Jones, a little Middlesboro beauty, eloped to Jellico last Thursday and were married. Upon their return they took rooms with Mrs. Patsy Brown.

Mrs. Simpson and daughters, of Pine Hill, attended services here last week. Dr. McMillan, of Richmond, closed his meeting Sunday night. Mr. Andrew Thompson, of Garrard, was in town last week. Mr. R. L. Thompson and family expect to move to Lancaster at an early date. Miss Lizzie Adams entertained a number of friends last Wednesday evening.

The death of Miss Mary Purcell, daughter of Mr. James Purcell, on last Saturday night, was peculiarly sad. An operation had been performed for appendicitis by her physicians. She was perfectly aware of the approach of death, for which she had no fear, dying with a song upon her lips. A large concourse of friends attended the burial Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Griffin are on the sick list. Mr. Henry Fish, of Crab Orchard, is the guest of friends here. The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Sarah Gentry, last Saturday. Mr. R. A. Ward was in town last week. Mr. Willis Adams is attending the Presbytery in Danville. Mr. J. Mulcahy and charming little daughter, of Danville, are at the Miller house.

LAND AND STOCK.

John Coffey sold to William Herring a bunch of fat heifers at 3c.

W. P. Norton has bought May Hempstead, paying $15,000 for her.

F. Reid sold to an Ohio man a brown gelding and a brown mare for $300.

Atlanta men are in Warren, Simpson and Logan counties buying mules for Spain.

W. P. Norton, of Hopkinsville, is said to have purchased Ornament for $20,000.

C. H. Singleton, of Crab Orchard, writes that it was a mistake about his selling his jack.

J. T. Terry bought of several parties here some butcher stuff for his trade at Livingston at 3c.

Dr. C. Fowler bought of the Dr. Givens heirs 51 acres of the Harvey Heim place at $35.

Sales of 40 extra 2-year-old cattle at 5 and a lot of shoats at 3c to 3.85c are reported in the Winchester Democrat.

High Jenks won the Tennessee Brewing Stakes at Memphis Saturday. Timemaker was second and Estaca third.

J. S. Renick has sold his crop of hemp, over 100 tons, to a Cincinnati buyer at a fraction over $4.—Paris News.

R. A. Dodd bought 5,000 bushels of wheat from Woodford parties at 90c. Brown Cogar also bought 7,000 bushels from parties in same county at 91c.—Jessamine Journal.

May wheat touched the highest point of the year at Chicago Friday, opening at $1.10 and going to $1.15, where it hung for a few minutes and then dropped back to the opening figure.

The "Colorado beetle" potato bugs are crawling about over the ground in various sections, patiently waiting for the potatoes to come up. The mild winter insures a full crop of insects.

The Advocate says the highest priced animal sold at the E. P. Faulconer sale brought $400, Greenlander Boy. He will have another sale of about 150 horses during the week of May 25. A Lincoln county man, who has just returned from several mountain counties where he went to buy cattle, says that the people in those sections are crazy about cattle, some pricing as high as 10c per pound.

At the closing-out sale of the horses on the noted Cloverdell Farm, Colmar, Pa., 181 were sold for an average of $289.41. The farm containing 235 acres was sold for $30,500. It originally cost with improvements $145,000.

At Danville yesterday there were about 200 cattle on the market, which was badly off. A bunch of two-year-olds that would have brought 5 to 5½c a month ago were withdrawn at 4.10. The crowd was smaller than usual.

Lexington papers say that Embury & Greene have engineered a lamb corner whereby they have secured about 35,000 of the 50,000 lambs in Central Kentucky at 5c, but the farmers haven't much to fuss about if they get that price.

The Spanish colony left Tampa for Cuba yesterday.

MEANS WAR.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE SENATE 67 to 21.

WHEREAS, The abhorrent conditions which have existed for more than three years in the island of Cuba, so near our own borders, have shocked the moral sense of the people of the United States, have been a disgrace to Christian civilization, culminating, as they have, in the destruction of a United States battle ship, with 266 of its officers and crew, while on a friendly visit in the harbor of Havana, and cannot longer be endured, as has been set forth by the President of the United States in his message to Congress on April 11, 1898, upon which the action of Congress was invited; therefore,

RESOLVED, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled,

1. That the people of the island of Cuba are and of right ought to be free and independent, and that the Government of the United States hereby recognizes the republic of Cuba as the true and lawful Government of that island.

2. That it is the duty of the United States to demand, and the Government of the United States does hereby demand, that the Government of Spain at once relinquish its authority and government in the island of Cuba and withdraw its land and naval forces from Cuba and Cuban waters.

3. That the President of the United States be, and hereby is directed and empowered to use the entire land and naval forces of the United States, and to call into service of the United States militia of the several states, to such extent as may be necessary to carry these resolutions into effect.

4. That the United States hereby disclaim any disposition or intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over said island, except for the pacification thereof; and assert its determination when that is accomplished, to leave the Government and control of the island to its people."

Sagasta says the charge of Spanish responsibility for the Maine disaster is "an infamous calumny."

The significant order has been given that no news concerning the movements of the U. S. fleet will be given out.

Balloon experts have been ordered to New York for service, which will be utilized in the harbor there in case of war.

The Spanish note to the powers, it is said, accuses the United States of bad faith, and says Spain is "reluctantly compelled to fight."

It is said that there are many Spanish spies in America, who will do much destruction to property secretly when war shall be declared.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. The Atlanta bakers have received orders for 100,000 loaves of bread daily to feed troops.

A dispatch from Cape Verde Islands says that the Spanish flotilla, which is anchored in the harbor there, is being painted black, which looks like business.

The president has decided to give Consul General Lee the command of the Virginia volunteers in the event that hostilities break out between this country and Spain.

With headquarters at Atlanta Gen. Miles will command the army. Division commanders assigned are Shafter, New Orleans; Conpinger, Mobile; Wade, Tampa, and Brooke, Chickamauga.

The action of Great Britain in directing her colonies to regard coal as a contraband of war in the event of a Spanish-American war is regarded as an act friendly toward the United States. An attempt will be made to induce other nations to take similar action.

The order issued mobilizing the troops on the Southern coast involves the heaviest movement of Federal troops since the war. The president has opposed this movement heretofore on the ground that it is too expensive to be resorted to until absolutely necessary. His final consent indicates his opinion of the situation.

The plan of the naval department upon the outbreak of hostilities is to send the flying squadron to Porto Rico, which will be blockaded and bombarded. The big guns of the battleship Massachusetts will be used for reducing the fortifications at San Juan, after which the Massachusetts will be exchanged for the fleet cruiser New York, and the flying squadron, which will also include the cruisers New Orleans and San Francisco, will cross the Atlantic and destroy any Spanish fleets encountered.

Gen. Lee testified: "I have never thought that the insurgents had any thing except the skeleton form of a government, a movable capital. I asked them one day why they did not have some permanent capital, and I think they gave a very good reason. They said it would require a large force to protect it and defend it, and they could not afford to mass up their men there; that the capital and the government officials had to move where they could be safest. Their army probably numbers 32,000 men. The Spanish forces are nearly double as large. An American army of occupation could go into the island with safety now. The climate nor anything else need prevent them entering Cuba."

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - APRIL 19, 1898

W. P. WALTON.

HON. J. B. THOMPSON,
Of Mercer, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress in the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the democratic party.

HON. G. G. GILBERT,
Of Shelby County, is a candidate for Congress in the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the democratic party.

We are authorized to announce

HON. JAS. B. MCCREARY
Of Madison County, is a candidate for Congress in the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the democratic party.

NERO fiddled while Rome burned and the U. S. Senate talked while thousands of non-combatant Cubans were dying daily in the war of extermination waged against them by the cruellest, most treacherous and most tyrannical nation on earth. During the several days that the resolutions looking to war with Spain were under discussion, 37 speeches were made, many of them three and four hours in length. The "squawmen" as Senator Mason dubbed the peace at any price crowd, headed by Hanna, which is composed of 19 republicans and two so-called democrats, White, of California, and Caffery, of Louisiana, fought for delay, but that is all they got for they were vanquished at every point and when the final vote at 9:14 P. M. Saturday was taken it showed 67 in favor of the recognition of the Cuban government, demanding that Spain relinquish control at once and authorizing the president to use the entire land and naval forces in carrying the resolutions into effect. The resolutions are given in full elsewhere in this edition. These are practically the resolutions introduced by the minority of the foreign relations committee and is a big victory for the democrats, who had the active support of 11 republicans and all the populists. The resolutions differ materially from those passed by the House and they were sent to that body at 10 A. M. yesterday. Our dispatches elsewhere will tell of the result. If the House refuse to concur in them a conference committee will have to wrestle with the question and that will cause further delay, though it is hardly probable that at this stage of the game the House will dare retard matters. There is a persistent rumor that the president will veto the resolutions because they recognize the Cuban government contrary to his recommendation, but the impression is that as much as he may desire to do so, he hasn't the backbone to carry it out. The country is aroused and has reached that point that it will not longer brook delay, so it is safe to assert that before the week ends war will have begun in earnest, unless Spain flickers at the last moment, of which there is little probability.

THERE is method in Gov. Worthington's madness with reference to the pardoning power. The Commonwealth's attorney of the Owensboro district, J. E. Rowe, who keeps himself and the party that elected him in constant disgrace by continued drunkenness, and who was indicted because he was unable to attend to his duties, presented a pardon from the old man, when his case was called for trial. Gov. Worthington evidently wants to keep Rowe before the people as a terrible example of democratic incompetence and imbecility.

EDITOR C. C. PARE, of the Glasgow News, is receiving the congratulations of the press, not for the addition of a new son to his large and growing family, but because he was miraculously spared the loss of a bright young legatee he already had. His son, Will, fell from a train at Elizabethtown and although his clothing was cut almost into shreds and he was picked up for dead, a kind Providence kept him from serious injury. Grand-pare, we rejoice with you, for no matter how many a man has he never has a child to spare.

THE Glasgow News grows gleeful and gets gloriously gay over the typographical error that made Miss Frances E. Willard, the president of the W. C. T. U., appear in this paper as a married woman or a widow. Citizens who inhabit structures of transparency and brittleness should not hurl missiles, for our critic in his criticism, spells Frances with an i, thus leaving the inference that Miss Willard bore a masculine name.

THE Dingley bill proving to be a failure as a revenue raiser, its name, sake says that he is thinking of an increase of four cents a pound tax on manufactured tobacco, even if war is not declared, the plan to include stocks in hand. As Mr. Dingley has proved a Jonah on revenue bills, he had better retire after asking a readeption of the Wilson bill.

THE omission of notice of the change of the Mt. Sterling Gazette to a semi-weekly was unintentional. We are to get that excellent paper, barring its politics, twice a week and we feel to congratulate ourselves as much if not more than its editor, John C. Wood.

IN his testimony before the Senate committee, Gen. Lee said he was sure that the Maine was blown up by Spanish officers, but acquits Blanco, who, he says, was crying when he saw him immediately after the explosion. That is not conclusive of his innocence. Even a cowardly, treacherous, cruel Spaniard may have moments of remorse and that may have been Blanco's feeling for the horrible act, of which he had prior cognizance.

THE Havana papers are still abusing Lee. One of them says: "Lee has gone home rich. He made money here by taking advantage of the necessities of the reconcentrados." Of course the liar who wrote it does not believe it himself, but it shows the animus against this government and its representative. "We love him for the enemies he has made" applies to our consul general with fullest force.

EDITOR JAMES M. ALLEN, of the Cynthiana Democrat, proposes to raise a regiment of delinquent subscribers and take them right straight to the front where the cannon balls are thickest. The services of our delinquents are hereby tendered, but if they are no better fighters than they are payers the Spanish will run rough shod over them.

IN spite of the evil predictions concerning it, the Louisville Dispatch has lived to be nearly a year old, and in order to signalize the event, it is preparing to issue an unusually large and handsome birthday number. The Dispatch is not backed by money to any alarming extent, but it is backed by the masses and public sentiment, which has made it a go from the start.

THE rot is going the rounds that Davison will ignore the recent act of the Legislature gerrymandering the Eighth district and will have polls opened in Jackson county. If the courts pronounce the gerrymander constitutional, Mr. Davison will not dare to even suggest the opening of polls in Jackson for himself, as big a man as he imagines himself.

MORE DELAY.

HOUSE REFUSES TO CONCUR IN SENATE RESOLUTIONS.
CONFERENCE COMMITTEE TO BE APPOINTED.

WASHINGTON, April 18, 4 P. M.—At 12:07 P. M. Senate resolution was received and democrats applauded when recognition clause was read. Dingley permitted the reading of the resolution. He moved to concur with amendment striking out recognition clause. Dingley then moved the previous question. Vote was taken on motion yeas and nays and resulted yeas 179, nays 156.

House refused to accept Senate amendment recognizing present Cuban republic and voted to concur with an amendment striking out this feature by vote of 179 to 156.

Senate refused to concur in amendment resolution, 46 to 32 refused conference and sent back to House. In House, Dingley moved to insist on amendment and asked conference and yeas and nays ordered on Brownwell's motion to concur.

WASHINGTON, April 18, 5 P. M.—Brownwell's motion defeated 164 to 137.

Resolution must now come before Senate and motions will be made to concur in amendment of House, and if concurred in will go to the president. If defeated a conference will be ordered.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Central Labor Union by overwhelming majority voted down peace resolutions offered by Bishops Potter, Williams, Dean, Howell and others. Effigy of Gen. Weyler hung all day from telegraph posts.

LONDON, April 18.—Carlists in England are preparing for emergency, being convinced that present Spanish dynasty is doomed.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Blue and Gray Legion now numbers 750 men ready to march at orders of government.

The flying squadron is in Hampton Roads, ready to move at any time.

In the event of war all the dead will be identified, as every soldier will wear around his neck an aluminum tag with his number.

The bone of contention is the recognition of the Cuban government and his lieutenants spent Sunday in fixing up the plans to prevent the adoption of that part of the Senate resolutions.

The report that the powers would make a naval demonstration together in order to scare the U. S., happily turns out to be untrue. There has been too much talk about the powers in this matter and the country agrees with Senator Foraker who says: "The powers haven't anything to do with Cuba or the Cuban question, and I think somebody ought to tell them so."

Additional Local.

THERE were only six stallions shown at Danville yesterday.

PIGEONS.—Eddie Hale shipped 30 odd pigeons to Somerset Friday to be used in a live bird shoot there.

TOMMY BALL is building a nine-room dwelling on "Blue Wing" Avenue, more familiarly known as "down on the creek."

BEAUTIFUL weather has prevailed for three days and until yesterday, when it clouded up and the signal service predicted rain last night and today.

"MINORS for sail," is the way little Jim Brady tells fishermen that he will sell them minnows at 50 cents per 100.

OLD FARMER HOPKINS.—Mr. Davidson has a strong company and carries all the scenery for the perfect production of his play. The musical part of the performance was a feature.—Springfield (Ill.) Register. At Walton's Opera House, April 23d.

THE L. & N. will run a special train from here next Sunday, leaving at 6:30 A. M. and reaching Louisville at 10:45 A. M. for the round trip, on account of the ball game between the Colonels and Cleveland. Returning, the train will leave Louisville at 7:15 P. M., reaching here about 11.

TO TEACHERS.—Supt. Garland Singleton asks us to say that examination for diplomas of graduation will be held 13 and 14 of May; examination for teachers' certificates for whites 3d Friday and Saturday in May, June, July and August, and for colored teachers on 4th Fridays and Saturdays of May, June, July and August.

CIRCUIT COURT began at Danville yesterday, but little was done beyond selecting the juries and charging the grand jury. The latter duty was performed by Judge Sautley, who adjourned court soon afterwards to give the Congressional candidates, Hons. James B. McCreary, G. G. Gilbert and John B. Thompson a chance to orate, which they accepted and for hours made the court-house ring with oratory.

THE parable we published recently about a man selling 1,800 bushels of wheat to 1,800 men, a bushel apiece at $1, on credit, and the time he had in collecting it, has borne fruit. We didn't mean him, but Manager F. J. Campbell, of Rock Castle Springs, writes: "That parable fetched me. Here's your $2. Yours humbly." If you are behind, dear reader, emulate the example of an honest man and go and do likewise.

SOME time ago the attorney for John Traylor, indicted for violating the liquor laws, demurred to the indictment because it failed to have the letters A. D. after the figures of the year and Judge Sautley sustained it. This was a little too technical for the Commonwealth's attorney, who took the case to the court of appeal, which on Saturday last reversed the ruling and held that when the year is plainly given, A. D. is understood.

WHEN the county buys a turnpike, it puts itself in the place of the company and should be made to fill all the provisions that the charter required of such corporations. Those whose pikes pass through or into town were required to keep up 16 feet of the street and now that the county has become the owner it should do the same. There is neither right nor justice in the county court requiring the town now to keep these pikes in repair and we are glad to know that Mayor J. N. Meneff has decided not to obey the order until a higher court commands it.

KILLED IN THE COURT-HOUSE.—E. C. Walton, who was in Danville at the time, telephoned us at noon yesterday that George Rowsey shot and killed a German named Kizer in the court-house there a few minutes before. Rowsey, who was drinking, but not drunk, went to Kizer and drawing a pistol said: "You killed my horse and I will kill you." The man protested and begged for his life, but before any one could interfere, Rowsey shot his victim three times, killing him instantly. Both the circuit and county courts were in session and the shooting created intense excitement. Rowsey was immediately apprehended and lodged in jail, or he might have not fared so well. The murderer is a son of the late Cage Rowsey, who killed a man or two and who was himself killed by Frank Ellis. An uncle of his was hung by a mob here many years ago.

WILL LET THE TURNPIKES.—The fiscal court decided, after hearing suggestions from scores of taxpayers, nearly all of whom had a different plan, to let the repairs of the turnpikes to the lowest and best bidders in sections of not less than two nor more than five miles till Jan. 1, 1899. The contractor is to give bond, with approved security, and the work is to be under the supervision of the county judge and the magistrate in whose section the pike may be. This is practically the plan suggested in this paper and seems to be the best that could have been adopted, though the whole thing is experimental yet. Bids will be received till May 9th and awards made by the court, which meets the day following. The court also bought the 32 miles of the Danville & Lancaster pike lying in this county for $1,250, to be paid out of the levies of the next four years. An order was made requiring Stanford to keep in repair that portion of the pikes within her limits. Telephone companies were permitted to place poles along the pikes' right of way. Attorney Harvey Helm was appointed to investigate the affairs of the Hustonville & Coffey's Mill pike. Poll taxpayers were granted the right to work three days on the road in payment of it and the prices of teams were fixed at $1.50 for two and $1 for one-horse. A number of orders allowing paupers stated sums were made and the court adjourned Saturday afternoon.

LADIES.—You are invited to the opening of my spring and summer millinery next Saturday. Mrs. Kate Duderar.

A MAD dog was killed on the Knob Lick last week, after it had bitten four hogs and several cattle. J. S. Campbell, of that section, who heard the chase the neighbors made and their final killing of the canine, says he thought from the number of shots fired that war had begun sure enough.

OLD MAID'S CONVENTION.—Miss Harriet Wellington Glascock, who gave a darselt entertainment here a few years ago, with marked success, arrived Saturday to arrange for giving an old maid's convention, which she will do with the assistance of the young ladies of town, at Walton's Opera House Tuesday evening, May 3d. Miss Glascock has had great success in such entertainments and will doubtless make the occasion a memorable event here. Particulars more fully in our next.

SIMPSON.—W. H. Simpson, son of R. L. Simpson, died yesterday morning of appendicitis, aged about 35 years. He was here county court day and went home sick. Nothing especially was thought of it, however, and it was not until the doctor came that his serious condition was realized. An operation was decided upon and Friday it was performed by Drs. Carpenter Bailey and Peyton. The appendix was found to be almost rotten and in it were two blackberry seed. The patient survived the operation well, but all hopes of his recovery were given up. Mr. Simpson married a Miss Head, of Jefferson county and she with one son survives. Deceased was a member of the Christian church and a clever, honorable man. Burial will take place at Buffalo cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 3 P. M. after a short talk at the grave by Eld. Joseph Ballou.

EATON.—With his father, Capt. H. C. Eaton, sick unto death probably, here, Odrey Eaton, eight years of age, died at 6 P. M. Saturday at his home at Lebanon Junction, of pneumonia, after several weeks illness. Capt. Eaton came here to consult physicians and was taken too ill to leave. His wife was sent for and while here the son was taken ill. She returned to Lebanon Junction and tried to nurse her boy back to health again, but in vain. Cruel death had marked him for his own. Thus has the family been most terribly afflicted and separated, and all who know the circumstances sincerely sympathize with them. Odrey was a bright little fellow and thought a great deal of by the railroad men and ladies, many of whom came up to attend the burial which was in Buffalo cemetery, after a sermon at the Methodist church by Rev. C. H. Neal.

SHOT A BURGLAR.—Saturday night at a late hour, George W. Alford, at his home at McKinney, heard some one in his bed room and jumping up discovered that it was a man, who evidently knew the surroundings as he started to the dresser supposedly to get Mr. Alford's pistol, that usually laid there. By this time Mr. Alford had gotten his gun and the man had run to his front door and was unlocking it, when Mr. A. fired at him, 13 bird shot and three buckshot, taking effect in the fellow's head. He got out of the house, however, and when Sheriff S. M. Owens found him, he was at the house of Green Anderson, a quarter of a mile away. The man proved to be Geo. Anderson, Jr., a Negro, and he is badly wounded, two of the buckshot having passed around and come out, one under his eye and the other on the side of the nose. He was in a precarious condition, when last heard from. He had worked for Mr. Alford and knew where he kept his money. Entrance was effected through the kitchen and had Mr. Alford not awakened when he did the Negro's raid might have been successful.

EVANS.—After four years of illness, death relieved Mrs. Ellen McAllister Evans from further suffering at 5 P. M. Sunday. Since the birth of her last child her nervous system had been unstrung and the tragic death of her husband, who was killed by the cars two years ago, added fuel to the flame that rapidly enveloped her. Her mind gave way under the pressure and for months it has been a blank. About Christmas paralysis from the waist down added its terrors and since then she has been more helpless than an infant. She was a daughter of the late Joseph McAllister, and Mrs. Martha McAllister, who survives to suffer the further weight of sorrow. About 23 years ago she married John Owsley Evans and they lived happily together until death rudely claimed him in March 1896. Four children were born to them and all are living. Mrs. Evans was a splendid woman and a most devout christian. She united with the Baptist church when a girl and lived fully up to its teachings. Lovable by nature and amiable in disposition she was loved by all who knew her and great sorrow is expressed over the circumstances attending her death. Several brothers and sisters, besides the mother and the now fully orphaned children, are left to mourn for her, who in health was a joy to them all. The remains were taken to Danville yesterday afternoon and in the presence of many friends laid by those of her husband and sister in the cemetery there.

RAISED.—Judge J. P. Bailey received notification from the State Board of Equalization Saturday that Lincoln Co. had been raised on assessment 5 per cent. on lands and 2 on town lots.

WHERE IS HE?—Some six months ago Mr. J. B. Dickinson received a letter from his son, Dr. J. W. Dickinson, who was then at London, asking him to send to him by express to that place his overcoat and some dental tools. He did so immediately and supposed his son had received them until a few days ago when he was notified by the agent at London that the package had never been called for. The doctor has played the role of itinerant dentist for several years but never before has he kept his whereabouts unknown so long from his aged father, who is alarmed about him.

THOMAS HELM, of Hustonville, has secured a pension of $6 a month from May 1, 1896.

THE court of appeals has affirmed Judge Morrow's decision in the case of Wellenboss vs. Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias of Kentucky. During the meeting of the grand lodge at Somerset several years ago, Wellenboss, representing a Louisville lodge, was denied admission because of charges pending against one of which was the giving of the password to parties not entitled to it. He sued for an injunction to stop the proceedings of the lodge, but before the case was decided the body had adjourned. However, it was decided against him and he took it to the above court which also gave him the hot end of it.

DEAD WOMAN FOUND.—While

passing through a field on Mr. S. K. Dudderar's farm on Logan's Creek Friday, Messrs. Val. Fagaley and T. J. Fagaley were horrified to find the body of a human being. Investigation showed it to be a woman, but the face had been so much eaten by worms that features were unrecognizable. Mr. Fagaley came to town and notified Judge Bailey, who in turn notified Coroner William Landgraf, who happened to be in town. He went to the scene, after summoning the following jury, S. K. Dudderar, J. T. Dudderar, J. H. Fagaley, William Flinchbaugh, Val. Fagaley and Robert Fagaley. It was found that the woman was Mary Porter, colored, 85 years of age, who had lived on the farm of E. T. Pence. Six weeks ago she started with the intention of coming to town, but evidently mistook the road and wandered off she knew not where. The body was lying by a big rock, upon which she had evidently sat down, and becoming chilled was unable to proceed further. The only evidence of a struggle was that in her effort to keep warm after falling over, she had scraped holes in the ground with her feet. Nearly all of her clothing was gone and the body was half covered with mud. The jury found that she "chilled to death from exposure to rain and cold weather."
